HISTORY OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF HINDU LOGIC. Chapter I. Development Of Logic In India. 2. akyds Date. --In curious contrast to the ancient Hindus love of subtle subdivision stands his failure to appreciate the value of dates. Chronological obscurity¹ in the records of Hindu literature, religion and philosophy is the greatest obstacle that lies in the way of our present investigation, and whatever traces there may have been of an historical development in the Hindu originals, these are completely lost in the Chinese and Japanese translations. Hence we can get no pure history of the Hindu people and their civilization from these sources. We must rest content with a few myths which the Chinese and Japanese monks have handed down from Hindu tradition and have embodied in their work. Yet I do not regard it as entirely hopeless to arrive at some...
