It is hoped that the publication will prove not merely a record of the proceedings of the Conference, but a serious and permanent contribution to the subject of public education in the Southern States. The notes of the stenographer have been followed somewhat closely. Some of the informal expressions from the platform, and some of the indications of applause, have been retained. The retention of these more passing phases of expression has been due to the fact that these pages are not the mere records of an impersonal and scholastic discussion, but the printed memorial of a very vital and vivid occasion. With especial reference to the indications of applause, it may...
