The Director believes that the action of the Lewis at-ire til limiting the appropriation to a nominal amount at the beginning was a wise one. When large appropriations are made at once for work of a new character much money is often wasted in the haste to be doing before the proper field of endeavor has been carefully and thoughtfully limited. Although the purpose and field of the State Bureau of Mines was quite well defined in the minds of those in charge of the Bureau, yet the experience of the past two years has taught them many things; we can now say with confidence that the Legislature used excellent judgment in keeping the appropriation for the first biennium to a small sum...
